

Mr. Nicholas E. Paramore
Head of School
Clarendon Hall

Nicholas “Nick” E. Paramore serves as Head of School at Clarendon Hall in Summerton, South Carolina. Raised in Florence, South Carolina, Mr. Paramore attended a South Carolina Independent School Association (SCISA) school during his high school years. This experience helped shape his appreciation for independent-school education and the lasting influence of strong school communities.

Guided by his core values of Integrity, Respect, Faith, and Service, Mr. Paramore is committed to principled leadership, continuous improvement, and creating an environment in which students and educators can thrive.

Before joining Clarendon Hall, Mr. Paramore served as Dean of Academics at Camden Military Academy in Camden, South Carolina. He oversaw all areas of teaching and learning, including faculty training and professional development, academic advising and scheduling, curriculum management, standardized testing, and educational technology.

Mr. Paramore earned a Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education from The Citadel in 2014 and a Master of Science in Leadership from The Citadel Graduate College in 2021. He is currently a doctoral candidate whose research examines how heads of independent schools perceive their use of artificial intelligence to support leadership decision-making.

Mr. Paramore completed SCISA’s inaugural ASCEND Program in 2026, a leadership-development initiative designed to prepare emerging leaders in South Carolina’s independent schools. He also serves as a major in the Civil Air Patrol, where he has held command positions at both the squadron and group levels and served as Inspector General for the South Carolina Wing. In 2018, he was named the SC Wing Senior Member of the Year.

Mr. Paramore and his wife, Jessie, are the proud parents of their daughter, Elliebet, and son, Cole. Their family also includes three dogs. In his free time, he enjoys spending time with his family, hunting, watching college sports, and pursuing opportunities for personal and professional growth.